

ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBER
Bernicka Scott

Bernika R. Scott is currently a Senior Tax Accountant for Emerson in Houston, Texas. She has worked in the indirect tax and audit industry for several years

. As a highly dedicated and committed professional her expertise ranges from compliance, audit analysis, defense, and research in the areas of Transaction Tax (Indirect Tax).

Beyond work, Bernika is actively involved in the Mosaic Women's Ministry and Campus Director of Adventure Week at Brookhollow Baptist Church. Serving is one of her passions and loves to volunteer whenever she can. Giving back to the community brings one immense joy and should never be taken for granted what service can do for others. "Service is the rent we pay for the privilege of living on this earth." — Shirley Chisholm.

Bernika is a proud and active lifetime member of the Houston Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and currently serves as the 2021-2023 Recording Secretary. She was named JHJ's "Alumnus of the Year" 2017 and a recipient of The Jesse H. Jones School of Business Alumni Chapter, 2017 40 Under 40 Award. As President, she looks forward to engaging future alumni and sharing with them the importance of joining an alumni chapter.

Bernika is a native of Little Rock, Arkansas, she received her Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Accounting from Texas Southern University, Jesse H. Jones School of Business. Years later, she returned to Jesse H. Jones School of Business and earned an Executive Master of Business Administration degree in Energy Finance.