

ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBER

Tiffany Dugar Hatchett

Tiffany Dugar Hatchett is an Area Manager and Vice President within JPMorgan Chase Business Banking Group in Houston, TX. Tiffany's team of Business Relationship Managers are responsible for generating new business and managing commercial clients with annual revenue of up to $20MM.

Tiffany has worked within the banking industry since 1997, in various commercial relationship management and credit positions within JPMorgan Chase, Bank of America and Nations Bank. She has worked in Miami, FL, Charlotte, NC, Dallas, TX, Phoenix AZ, San Francisco, CA and Houston, TX.

Tiffany holds an undergraduate degree in Finance from The Florida State University. She is also a graduate of various Bank Executive and Management Training Programs, various sales, finance, strategic sales and negotiation courses.

Her current organizations and professional affiliations include:

The Missouri City Chapter of The Links, Inc., 12 Days of Christmas, Inc., member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Incorporated, and Texas Women's University, School of Management – Business Plan Advisor and Mentor. Her past board affiliations include:

The Child Care Council of Houston , Sickle Cell Association of Houston , the Urban Financial Services Coalition Foundation of San Francisco , the Urban Bankers Association (Miami and San Francisco) and Graduate of Leadership Miami.