

ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBER
Verdis Wilson

Verdis is a native Houstonian. He earned his Bachelor of Administration Degree in Accounting from Texas Southern University, Jesse H. Jones School of Business. Verdis is currently Auditor Supervisor for the City of Houston where he supervises a team of five senior auditors

On a daily basis, Verdis assists management with evaluating the effectiveness of operations and controls over assets through operational, contract and audit compliance reviews. Aside from being the 2016-2017 President of the TSU JHJ School of Business Alumni Chapter, Verdis is also a member of The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA), Association of Local Government Auditors (ALGA) and National Forum for Black Public Administrators – Houston Chapter (NFBPA).

Verdis enjoys giving back through volunteer work. Verdis volunteers with the community outreach organization, Rebuilding Together Houston, which provides home repair and renovation services to low-income homeowners in need.

He also volunteers with the Mayor of Houston's Annual Back 2 School Fest which prepares students in need with supplies and materials for the school year. Verdis is active in his community and Jerusalem Baptist Church.

Verdis was recently named one of Houston's top '40 Under 40' Next Generation of Leaders by i10Media Magazine.