
CURRICULUM VITAE

MAMMO WOLDIE

Department of Business Administration
JHJ School of Business
Texas Southern University
Houston, TX 77004
713-313-7736
mammo.woldie@tsu.edu

EDUCATION

INSTITUTION	DEGREE	YEAR	FIELD OF STUDY
Oklahoma State University	PhD	1984	Statistics

A. Academic/Professional Qualifications:

Primary teaching responsibilities:

Statistical Methods (Graduate), Business Statistics I, Business Statistics II, Production Management etc.

B. Peer Reviewed Publications (past five years):

Ayadi, F.O., Woldie, M. & Allagoa-Warren, A. "Is Brain Hemisphericity a Correlate of Performance in Problem-Solving Courses: A Case Study from an HBCU". Journal of Education for Business, 2019

Claiborne, C. B. & Woldie, M. "Statistical Thinking and Future Thinking as Preparation for Engagement in the Global Society". Journal of International Business and Economics, 2019

Ojode, L. A., Woldie, M. & Wilfrida, O. "Developing Managerial Expertise: Experiential Learning of Professional Skills". Southwestern Business Administration Journal, 2017.

Superville, C. R., Yorke, G. G. & Woldie, M. "The Relationship Between Quality and Productivity". Journal of Business & Economic Policy, 2017.

Woldie, M. "Reflections on Teaching Business Statistics". Accepted for publication by the Southwestern Business Administration Journal.