

Fridah Mariki

College Business Administrator

FRIDAH MARIKI has been The College Business Administrator in the dean's office since September 2019. Prior to that she served as the School Project Coordinator. Ms. Mariki administers business and financial activities within the School of Communication. Using her detailed-oriented character and multi-tasking abilities, Ms. Mariki continuously strives to ensure excellence in academic services. She serves in other areas within the school including grants. Ms. Mariki holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Jesse H. Jones School of Business at Texas Southern University, and an MBA from the University of Phoenix.