Campus Crime Alert

Release Date: July 12, 2018

Offense: Suspicious Activity

On Tuesday, July 12, 2018, at approximately 9:00 PM, TSU Police met with a group of student in regards to a suspicious occurrence. The students stated they were walking back to their dorm, The University Towers, south on Attucks Street from Cleburne Street. As they were walking, one male student observed a suspicious black male, dark complexion, ear length dreadlocks wearing all black walking behind them. Upon observing the male, one of the students alerted his companions. When they turned to look at him, he said something they could not hear and pointed an unknown object at them. The students continued walking and were unharmed.

The unknown male was last seen walking south in the 3800 Block of Attucks Street.
